

GEAPS Exchange is a great place to make new connections in the grain industry, find operations solutions and learn about new technologies and best practices from across the industry. With around 300 exhibitors in the Expo, nearly 45 hours of education and a number of social events, the Exchange is the best place to make connections and advance your career!