What and Why of Your Organization

Identify your culture

Culture

“the set of shared attitudes, values, goals, and practices that characterizes an institution or organization.”

Marriam-Webster

Areas of Culture

- Artifacts and Creations: Tangible, identifiable elements in an organization. Visible elements recognized by people but not part of culture.

Areas of Culture

- Artifacts and Creations: Tangible, identifiable elements in an organization. Visible elements recognized by people but not part of culture.
- Values and Beliefs: Espoused values and rules of behavior. Expressed philosophies and public statements of identity.

Name That Mission Statement!

We are satisfied with nothing less than the very best in everything we do.

We are here to make a positive difference in society, as well as make a profit.

- Assumptions: Taken for granted, deeply embedded way of doing things (your default setting)

Why does it matter?

The Hard Facts of Employee Engagement

Research from the Gallup organization

- 16% greater profit margin
- 19% greater operating margin
- 18% greater productivity
- 2.6 times the earning-per-share growth of less-trusting companies.
